

Mr. SCARBOROUGH. Mr. Speaker, here we go again. Absolutely amazing. Medicare is going bankrupt, and the Democrats are doing absolutely nothing about it. They come up behind the podium just like they did last year, telling us that the Republicans are cutting Medicare when they know it is not the truth. The Washington Post spells it out. Last year during the demagoguery, the Washington Post accused the Democrats of shameless demagoguery to try to scare seniors because "they know that is where the votes are."

Then, Washington Post columnist Robert Samuelson took it a step forward and called the President of the United States and the Democrats liars on Medicare. Why? Because it is clear. Medicare is going bankrupt and the Democrats are doing nothing about it.

They do not care about my 93-year-old grandmother. They do not care about my parents. They do not care about the millions of seniors who will be without Medicare in 5 years if we do not do something about it today.

They do not care. John Lennon wrote a song called "How Do You Sleep at Night." I think it should be their theme song for the 1996 election.

LEGISLATION OF THE 104TH CONGRESS

(Mr. DOGGETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, this House Republican leadership has turned over the job of writing much of our legislation to special interest lobbyists. They gather here at the Capitol weekly to write the Nation's business. So, it is little wonder that now with the election approaching, they have begun a corruption search to cover their own misdeeds.

The latest chapter in this is this callous act of raising these accusations about the death of Ron Brown at the very time his family still grieves. The Speaker said yesterday, Reagan was teflon, Clinton is flypaper, this stuff is going to start to stick.

The only thing stuck around here is this Republican leadership. It is stuck in the gutter because of its own misdeeds and now these callous accusations.

WELFARE REFORM

(Mr. CHABOT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CHABOT. Mr. Speaker, today, once again, we will try to take the President at his word on welfare reform. Only 3 weeks ago President Clinton endorsed the Wisconsin works plan which substitutes work and responsibility for dependence and despair. It was adopted by sweeping bipartisan majorities in the Wisconsin State Legislature. Yet Federal roadblocks still prevent that plan from going into effect.

President Clinton said he endorsed the plan just a couple of weeks ago. He said we should get it done. Now we get hemming and hawing from the administration. In fact, some administration officials signaled that the President did not mean what he said. But maybe they are not being fair to their boss.

The cynics point this out, after saying that he wanted to end welfare as we know it, remember that, the President vetoed welfare reform. Then he vetoed it again. The cynics say that we have to be a bit skeptical of the President's words. But heck with those cynics.

Mr. Speaker, let us give the President what he says he wants and what the people of Wisconsin really do want. To quote the President, "We should get it done."

Let us overhaul the terrible welfare system that we have in this country and let us do it in Wisconsin for the folks there who want to overhaul the welfare system.

COMMERCE SECRETARY RON BROWN

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, once again House Speaker NEWT GINGRICH has gone too far. He is alleging that the Commerce Department workers might have shredded documents after Secretary Brown's fatal crash in Croatia and that the staff delayed reporting this airplane crash with 26 incredible Americans on board. According to Gingrich's staff, the Speaker is, and I quote, "Suggesting there might have been a coverup to get rid of Brown's papers after he died."

This is extreme. It is irresponsible. It is not the behavior of a congressional leader.

When questioned about it, the Speaker's office responded, and I again quote, "I think they are serious allegations, if subsequent facts support them, if subsequent facts support them, I think it is something other news outlets ought to look at and other agencies."

In other words, we are going to make an outrageous allegation and then we are going to hope that eventually someone comes up with the facts to support it.

Has not the family of Commerce Secretary Ron Brown suffered enough? Speaker GINGRICH, who did not even attend the funeral, owes the Brown family a public apology for making this irresponsible and fictional allegation.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. INGLIS of South Carolina). The Chair admonishes Members not to refer to the President in terms personally offensive, as occurred during the remarks of the gentleman from Florida.

A BALANCED BUDGET

(Mr. LINDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LINDER. Mr. Speaker, the last 20 minutes discussion on Medicare is only a symbol of what has been wrong in this town for 30 years. This body and the other has been voting benefits to America's citizens and said do not worry, you are not going to have to pay for them. We are going to pass this bill on to your grandchildren. That is why we must have a balanced budget and a balanced budget amendment and it makes sense.

But more than just common sense. It is a promise to our children and grandchildren that we will not continue runaway government spending at their expense. When my grandsons are old enough to ask me, I do not want to have to explain to them why they are paying $3,500 every year in taxes just for interest on the national debt and why over their lifetime they will pay $187,000 in taxes just to pay interest on the debt.

I refuse to say to them, your future is mortgaged and your country is bankrupt. That is why House Republicans have kept their promise to the American people and passed the balanced budget amendment. Now the Senate can do the same. All we need is for President Clinton to keep his word.

Governor Clinton supported a balanced budget, but last year President Clinton persuaded six Democrat Senators to change their vote and defeat the amendment. I hope the President will begin to get his actions in step with his words.

BASELESS ALLEGATIONS

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I read with disbelief an article in the Washington Post this morning. It reported that the Speaker of this House has made baseless, unsubstantiated allegations about our late Secretary of Commerce, Ron Brown.

Ron Brown died in service to his country just 2 short months ago when his plane crashed during a trade mission to Bosnia. The Brown family is still in mourning, but for the Speaker of the House the death of this great man is something to be exploited for political gain.

Mr. Speaker, how low will you go? Is there a shred of decency left in your body? Is there anything you would not say for partisan political gain. You bring disrespect to yourself and to this institution by making such outrageous and baseless charges.

You owe us all an apology. You owe the Brown family an apology. You owe this Congress an apology and you owe this Nation an apology.

Mr. Speaker, you might not be the most unpopular public figure in history
